Tignanello

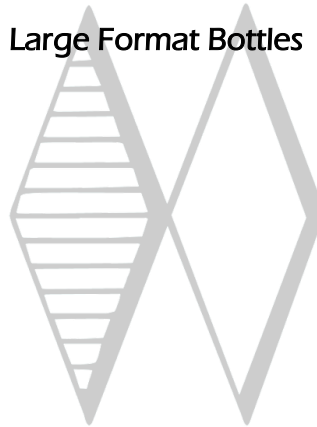

One of the original Super-Tuscans, Tignanello was introduced with the 1971 vintage. It is produced exclusively from the Tignanello vineyard, a southwest-facing, calcareous, rocky-marl and limestone soil plot, planted between 1,150 and 1,312 feet above sea level at Antinori's Tignanello Estate. It was the first Sangiovese to be aged in small oak barrels, one of the first Tuscan red wines in modern times to use a non-traditional grape variety, Cabernet, in the blend, and among the first red wines made in Chianti with no white grapes. In all three instances, it set the example for a new breed of exceptional, top-of-the-line Italian wines.

Guado al Tasso

Guado al Tasso, first introduced in 1990, literally meaning "Badger's Ford," takes its name from a common sight at the estate. The vineyard is at an elevation between 145 and 190 feet above sea level on stony, slightly calcareous soils. Tenuta Guado al Tasso is located 60 miles southwest of Florence, near the medieval village of Bolgheri, in an area known as the Maremma that stretches up from the shore of the Tyrrhenian Sea to the hills.

Solaia

Solaia means the 'sunny one' in Italian. Solaia was introduced with the 1978 vintage. It comes from a southwest-facing vineyard planted 1,150-1,300 feet above sea level on stony, calcareous soil of marl and albarese rock. It is located at the Tignanello estate in the Mercatale Val di Pesa zone of Chianti Classico.

Solaia displays an extremely intense dark-ruby color, followed by a sumptuous spice box and cassia bouquet, leading to flavors of blackberries, mint and licorice. It is highly structured and presented in a concentrated, medium to full-bodied, dense yet elegant style.

Marchese Antinori International Collaborations

California

Antica - Piero Antinori first visited Napa Valley in 1966, and was immediately drawn to its natural beauty. Although it took 20 years, he returned to California in the mid-1980s, and purchased a 1,200 acre Napa Valley wine estate on a high plain in the eastern mountains of Napa Valley. The hilly terrain was considered to be above all ideal wine growing country, but while some may have scratched their heads and asked, "Why here?" Marchese Antinori knew that the property's location—with its rocky soil, high elevation, and drop-dead gorgeous landscape—had great potential for growing quality Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon grapes.

Pebble Beach Exclusives

22365	Kosta Browne, Treehouse Vineyard , Russian River Valley 2018 For this special lot, Kosta Browne Winemaker Nico Cueva offers their first – and last – vineyard designate bottling from Treehouse Vineyard. The Swan Clone Pinot Noir grown there is intense yet well balanced. To craft this never before, never again lot, fruit went immediately into a concrete Amphora fermenter, with whole cluster fermentation. It was aged in a single puncheon barrel for 18 months. The resulting Pinot Noir has a huge, dense, dark and rich fruit flavor profile, while retaining bright acidity with nuanced bramble and fruit characteristics.	475
20600	Pebble Beach, Memories , Monterey County 2021 This wine was made by the resort wine team in conjunction with Master Sommelier, Emmanuel Kemiji. Clones 667 and 777, all sustainably farmed. Aged eight months in 20% new French oak barrels. Only 300 cases made; this wine is only available at Pebble Beach Resorts.	65
22595	Russian River Winegrowers, Centuries Collaboration , Russian River Valley 2017 This wine, exclusive to Pebble Beach, was made to celebrate the “old timers” of the Russian River AVA. David Ramey, Tom Rochioli, Joseph Swan, Merry Edwards, Fred Scherrer, Steve Macrostie and Bob Cabral – who combined have over 200 years of winemaking experience – all contributed fruit and helped craft this unique Pinot Noir. Aged 18 months in French oak. Only 20 cases produced.	290
22755	Williams Selyem, 35th Anniversary Quintessence Blend , Sonoma County 2015 This wine, exclusive to Pebble Beach, was made to commemorate the 35th Anniversary of Williams Selyem Winery. This tribute blend takes from primarily the oldest vineyards in the Russian River Valley and Sonoma Coast that Burt Williams originally sourced from: Allen, Rochioli Riverblock, Hirsch, Olivet Lane and Williams Selyem Estate. Only 20 cases produced.	500
